How to use Small Print

Small print is for serious researchers rather than casual visitors to www.christinaanddonaldmclean.com

There have many documents in various stages of development for this website. Some are almost ready for public viewing whereas other documents still need further editing. Some are close to completion after final touches and others are just rough notes or ideas for future consideration and might not see the light of day for several years.

The documents are grouped as follows:-

- A: This one - 'How to use Small Print'. This is a list of the groups – and a brief comment about each of them.
- B: 'How to use this website'. Some suggestions for what kinds of hints we could give first-time visitors and regular visitors to enhance their experience with the website – to avoid early frustrations and also to support the exploration of full potential of this site.
- C: 'Introduction to our research'. This explains how we are approaching our research and what aspects we are addressing.
- D: 'Parents & grandparents of Donald & Christina'. We are sure of Donald's parents (Rachel Rankin & Allan) but know virtually nothing about their lives and their parents. Christina's parents were probably Christian Cameron and John Page McPhee, but again we have not found anything about them. In this group we detail how we are going about searching for more about these families.
- E: 'Places'
- F: 'Clan MacLean'
- G: 'Donald's life'
- H: 'Descendants of Donald & Christina'
- I: Not to be used
- J: 'Biographies & anecdotes being drafted': Most biographies are new, but some are updates of some of the 230 biographies in the BRB. For the time being, the original wording from the BRB is highlighted in yellow (so that this can be acknowledged).
- K: Spare
- L: Spare
- M: Spare
- N: 'Memorabilia being drafted'
- O: Not to be used

- Q: 'Steering Group – 2015 to 2018' This includes minutes of meetings, finances, lines of action, and network list.
- R: 'Sub-committee of Strathalbyn NTSA - from 2018'. This group includes our organizational structure, minutes, actions taken, and finances etc.
