

Edith Florence McDONALD

7-10-1882 to 11-3-1884

Biography as published in 1985 & 1995

Edith Florence was the second child and second daughter of Joseph and Flora McDonald, and was born at Nurrabiél. Her first cousin, James Hanham Tucker, was born earlier that year in South Australia. Her grandparents were Rachel and Ewen McDonald and great-grandparents were Christina and Donald McLean.

In 1957, Edith's elder sister Jessie said that this small sister and a brother had 'both been carried off by the summer diarrhoea.' Edith was eighteen months old when she died, and was buried in an unmarked grave in Nurrabiél cemetery.

- SOURCE : This biography was from page 101 of "History of Ewen & Rachel McDonald & Descendants" by Jill McDonald which was originally published in 1985. It was republished as part of "The History of Donald & Christina McLean and Their Descendants" in 1995.
- COLONIALISTS : Christina and Donald McLean and their ten children migrated from Argyllshire to South Australia in 1837. This was in the earliest years of the colony. The McLeans initially settled near Adelaide where they grew the first wheat crop in SA. Then in about 1840 they pioneered the Strathalbyn area. There are now well over 20,000 descendants spread across Australia and elsewhere.
