

Amy Helena Victoria McDONALD

17-12-1886 to 29-11-1887

Biography as published in 1985 & 1995

Amy Helena was the third child and second daughter of Charles and Ellen McDonald and was born at Carchap. Four first cousins were also born that year, and twins Archie and Allan McDonald of Nurrabiel, Ethel June McDonald at Noradjuha, and Arthur Hrtrold Tucker in South Australia. Her grandparents were Rachel and Ewen McDonald and great-grandparents were Christina and Donald McLean.

The baptismal records of St Andrew's Uniting Church, Horsham, show that Amy was baptised according to the rites of the Presbyterian church at Smith Street, Horsham, by the Reverend Thomas Gray on November 29, 1887, and that she died the same day, two weeks before her first birthday. There is no record of her burial, presumably at Nurrabiel.

- SOURCE : This biography was from page 160 of "History of Ewen & Rachel McDonald & Descendants" by Jill McDonald which was originally published in 1985. It was republished as part of "The History of Donald & Christina McLean and Their Descendants" in 1995.
- COLONIALISTS : Christina and Donald McLean and their ten children migrated from Argyllshire to South Australia in 1837. This was in the earliest years of the colony. The McLeans initially settled near Adelaide where they grew the first wheat crop in SA. Then in about 1840 they pioneered the Strathalbyn area. There are now well over 20,000 descendants spread across Australia and elsewhere.
