

Elizabeth HOGSFLESH or GRIFFITHS, nee KEATING

(first name not known) HOGSFLESH

Biography as published in 1995

There is very little information about Elizabeth KEATING. She was apparently the only daughter of Margaret JOHNS (previously KEATING, nee MCLEAN)

She might have been born about 1848 because the records associated with the death of mother, have her as 64 years old when her mother died on 30th July 1912.

We have been informed that Elizabeth, married a man named HOGFLESH, but may have changed her surname to GRIFFITH. There is no confirmation of this possibility.

As far as we know, there is no other information about Elizabeth. We were unable to trace her.

- SOURCE : This biography is an extract from "The History of Donald & Christina McLean and Their Descendants" which was published in 1995 – page 515.
- COLONIALISTS : Christina and Donald McLean and their ten children migrated from Argyllshire to South Australia in 1837. This was in the earliest years of the colony. The McLeans initially settled near Adelaide where they grew the first wheat crop in SA. Then in about 1840 they pioneered the Strathalbyn area. There are now well over 20,000 descendants spread across Australia and elsewhere.
