

McLean families - many of these families were in Blaich

This document was provided in May 2016 by Edwin MacLean who is Archivist with the Clan MacLean Association in NSW.

There are two parts – a family tree and a list.

Family tree (pages 8 to 16)

The family tree starts with Lachlan Mor MacLean (born 1614) who was the first Laird of the second family of Blaich. He was the father of Allan MacLean of Blaich (b 1645) who became the next laird and was the father of Lachlan MacLean of Loch Eil (b 1679).

List (pages 2 to 7)

This gives details of 21 people, their spouses, and their children.

Lachlan MacLean (b 1679) is the starting point for the list where he is person 1. He had three sons:-

- Donald (b 1708 – person 2): He is the progenitor of our McLeans through his third son, Allan (person 7) who was the father of 'our' Donald (b 1779, person 14).
- Allan (b 1711 – person 3): He is the progenitor of Allan Lachlan 'Willowburn' MacLean (b 1954) who has supplied information about Blaich. Willowburn's pedigree is Allan (b 1711, person 3), Lachlan (b 1751, person 8), Alexander (b 1796, person 19), Allan (b 1840), Lachlan (b 1880), Allan (b 1925) and Willowburn (b 1954).
- John (b 1717 – person 4) – He is of less direct interest to us.

The above notes were compiled by Don Gordon in Jan 2017
