September 2020

Small print is for collaboration between serious researchers. The documents are too detailed for casual visitors to the website.

There are many documents in various stages of development for this website.

- Some are stories which need final touches to be ready for public viewing, whereas others need more research.
- Some are administration documents which need to be fine-tuned now and then.
- Some are just rough notes or ideas for future consideration and might not be finalized for several years.

The documents are grouped as follows:-

- A: 'How to use Small Print' – this one
- B: 'How to use this website'
- C: 'Introduction to our research'
- D: 'Parents & grandparents of Donald & Christina'
- E: 'Places'

- I: Not to be used
