Version 09 – March 2019

Small print is for collaboration between serious researchers. The documents are too detailed for casual visitors to the website.

There are many documents in various stages of development for this website.

- Some are stories which need final touches to be ready for public viewing, whereas others need more research.
- Some are administration documents which need to be fine-tuned now and then.

The documents are grouped as follows:-

D: ‘Scottish ancestors’ (research notes): We cannot go back before the mid-1700s until we know a good deal about the parents & grandparents of Donald & Christina. We are sure of Donald’s parents (Rachel Rankin & Allan) but know virtually nothing about their lives and their parents. We are less certain about Christina’s parents (probably Christian Cameron and John Page McPhee) and we have not found anything about them either. In this group, we detail how we are going about searching these families.
